Director of Public Affairs

Charlie:

Per our conversation of August 31, I have talked to Stanley Spangler, Executive Director of the World Affairs Council of Boston re a possible joint sponsorship of a program for the DCI. Spangler, of course, would much prefer to have the Director alone for a luncheon plus a presentation and questions and answers from approximately 1130 until 1400. He anticipated attendance of 300-400.

Spangler did note, however, that on occasion the World Council had co-sponsored presentations with Harvard and Fletcher, and would not object to doing so if the Director's time and schedule were such that no other arrangements could be made. I mentioned 30 November as a very tentative planning date, that this proposal was very preliminary, and that nothing had been established yet.

I told Spangler someone would be getting back in touch with him in a couple of weeks.
